THE FORESTERS CELEBRATE.

Annual Dinner—A Pleasant Social Evening.

On Wednesday evening the members of the local lodge Independent Order of Foresters assembled at the house of Mrs. W. A. McFall to hold their annual dinner. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Herrier, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Annable, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Glasgow, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Withrow, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wright, Mrs. G. M. Annable, Mr. and Miss Battle, Mr. and Miss Martin, Mr. and Miss McMillan, Mr. and Miss Ashman, Mr. and Mrs. Leary, Miss King, Miss Rogers, Messrs. John Thompson, J. H. Annable, C. D. J. Christie, Hamilton Lang, R. W. Timmins, H. Ferguson, F. A. Meller, R. Wilson, S. H. Blake, J. Manns, H. Bates, R. Bogue, J. A. Kerr and others.

The duties of Chairman devolved upon Mr. R. Bogue, while the vice chair was ably filled by Mr. T. Withrow. After ample justice was done the good things prepared in Mrs. McFall's best style, the chairman in a few well chosen remarks proposed the health of the Queen, which was drunk as only Moose Jawites can drink it.

The toast "The I. O. F." brought Mr. Bogue to his feet. He sketched briefly the workings of the order and gave some interesting statistics regarding its financial standing. Mr. F. G. Herrier followed on the same line.

"Sister Societies" was drunk with gusto and called forth pleasant speeches from Messrs. Thos. Wright, Alex. Brechen and Thos. Withrow.

The next toast was "The Town we Live In" and was coupled with the names of Hugh Ferguson, J. E. Annable and Fred Herrier. Mr. Ferguson in his usual charming manner, delivered a speech teeming with pleasantries, in which he eulogized the town of Moose Jaw, and pictured its future progress. Mr. Annable gave a laughable description of the early days of Moose Jaw and related the experience of some of the early pioneers. Mr. Herrier, after stating that he could not improve on what had been said delivered a most amusing sermon which kept the guests roaring with laughter.

"The Press" was responded to by Mr. Lang of the Times.

"Our Hostess" was well received as was also the toast "Orenhyteke."

"The Ladies," as is usual with such events in Moose Jaw, was enthusiastically received and the responses did not suffer at the hands of Messrs. C. D. J. Christie, Russell Wilson, J. E. Kerr and W. Timmins.

During the evening songs were given by Messrs. Bates, Battell and Lang. The singing of Auld Lang Syne brought a most enjoyable dinner to a close.

Clerks Dismissed.

OTTAWA, Jan. 9.—The excitement among the extra clerks, over the impending dismissals in the various departments, continues. The postoffice department is evidently going to pursue the same course as Hon. Mr. Haggart has done. Four mail clerks and some extra clerks have received notices of their discharge. They were told that, as they did not pass the civil service examination, their services could not be retained, and that an order-in-council was passed to this effect. Among the discharged clerks was Professor Pope, who works in the city post office. Immediately on receiving his notice, Pope seized his hat and made for Sir John Thompson's office. The premier, so Pope says, told him to go back to work and he (Sir John) would see Hawkins, the post office inspector, in regard to the matter. Pope returned and resumed work.

IN FAVOR OF CHURCH UNION.

Proposal to Unite the Presbyterian and Congregational Bodies.

TORONTO, Jan. 8.—A delegation of Congregational clergymen waited upon the Toronto Presbytery today and made overtures for a union between the Congregational and Presbyterian bodies. A paper was read pointing out the resemblance which exists in points ecclesiastical and doctrinal. The reception given the delegates was marked in its heartiness. Rev. Principal Craven and Rev. D. J. McDonnell spoke in general terms in favor of the union. A motion was moved, thanking the delegates for their presence and agreeing to a conference at what ever time and place might be desired.

North-West Immigration.

OTTAWA, Jan. 9.—This year promises to be a memorable one in the annals of immigration to Canada. During the past few months the interior department has been quietly re-organizing work both on the continent and in Europe in view of the coming rush to Manitoba and the North West. Experience already proves the wisdom of the transfer of the immigration branch of the department of agriculture. In the British Isles alone five thousand booking agents will co-operate with the Government agents. The country has been divided into districts, the work in each of which will be directed by trained and efficient men. For instance Baillie Stewart, Glasgow, will have charge of the work in the Northern counties of Scotland. Mr. Stewart received much attention during his six months tour of Canada last year. His colleagues in the southern countries of Scotland, Peter Fleming has enjoyed much experience and is well qualified to speak concerning Canada's exceptional advantages to immigrants. P. R. Ritchie, of Essex county, will make a lecturing tour in England. His pamphlet on Canada is enjoying a wide circulation. In Northern England the work will be intrusted to E. J. Wood an ex-member of the Manitoba Legislature, and who settled in Canada about twelve years ago. The department has also secured the services of first-class men in Belgium and Northern France and Norway. Germany and Sweden are the only countries which have prohibited Canada from offering free homes to millions. Effective work is also being carried on in Iceland and Norway. Hon. T. M. Daly, minister of the interior, has devoted great attention to the subject since entering the Government, and confidently anticipates very good results in the spring. Germany and Sweden prohibited Canadian immigration agents carrying on the work in those countries.

Travel on Freight.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 10.—The regular monthly meeting of the board of trade was held yesterday afternoon in the board of trade rooms, grain exchange building. The only subject of interest discussed was the order issued by the C. P. R. some time ago prohibiting passengers from travelling by freight trains. This, it is claimed, is a hardship to commercial travellers, who are thus compelled often to drive from one town to another, another, and the effect on business is already felt by the wholesale houses. A committee was appointed to confer with Supt. Whyte on the subject and to try and make some other arrangements.

Ben Butler Dead.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Benjamin Butler, lawyer, statesman, politician and millionaire, died at his residence this morning.

FATAL FLAMES.

Two Victims of a Fire at Elk Horn.

ELKHORN, Jan. 10.—On the night of Jan. 9th the handsome residence of Mr. Thomas at Springfield, about five miles north of Elkhorn was totally destroyed by fire, and Mrs. Thomas perished in the flames. The fire, which was seen for many miles around, must have broken out about eleven p. m. Mrs. Thomas had returned that day from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Power. Her son, Mr. F. Thomas, had gone to a social party of neighbors at Mr. Bajas, about one mile away. The only other person in the house, Walter Holding, went to bed about nine p. m., and in the night, heard Mrs. Thomas call "Walter." He jumped out of bed, opened the door, saw the door-case and stair-case all ablaze. He made a rush down the stairs, through the flames, ran into the kitchen, and, doubting, mistaking the window for a door, forced his way through it, in his shirt-sleeve. He had to make his way to Mr. Randall's quarter of a mile away, but, fainting with the scorching he sustained and torn horribly in the arms and legs by the broken glass he made his way into the stable left and endeavored to keep off the severe cold by covering in the hay. About midnight Mr. Freeman, one of the guests of Mr. Rogers' gathering, going outside the house, saw the fire and gave the alarm. The man repairs to the scene as the thick snow would allow, but the lower part of the walls was all that was left, the inside of which was a mass of fire. Alas sometimes the best means in trying to find traces of the two who had been in the house someone heard groaning in the stable and on entering the poor fellow was found rapidly freezing. He was removed to Mr. Randall's and all wounds that could be to resort warmth to the limbs and medical aid sent for. Dr. Ralston did what was possible, but the shock of the three-fold injuries was too great, and he died at once, after telling all he saw about the awful crash. The value of the deceased lady was carefully collected and placed in charge of Rev. R. H. Stevenson who had gone out to visit the unfortunate man. The funeral was held in St. Mark's Church and was very largely attended.

Reilly Set to Go.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 10.—Ex-Mayor Reilly, of Calgary, who has been in the east for some time, visiting relations, arrived here yesterday morning on route home, leaving on the west train in the afternoon. Mr. Reilly is anxious to get back, as he desires to be in Calgary when the case brought by Senator Longwell, himself and others against the English syndicate who failed to build the Calgary and Edmonton railroad comes on for argument. In conversation with a Free Press reporter at the Manitoba this morning Mr. Reilly said: "I am by the Free Press that Senator Percy has been appointed commissioner for the Northwest to the World's Fair. This is a great surprise to me for I had been promised the position and was relying on the promise. It reminds me of the scriptural saying 'To him that hath shall be given.' I may frankly state that I believe the consensus of the opinion of the people of the Northwest was in my favor but of course you cannot control the powers that be. I guess that Punch and Judy quarrel between Heald and Cayley caused me to lose it."

E. E. Campbell Impeached.

TORONTO, Jan. 9.—It has transpired that the United States consular Col. Pope, was not officially invited to the recent grand Banquet of the Board of Trade, which was attended by the chief public men of Canada. Col. Pope is an able able speaker, and has been absent from so few important functions during his years of his residence in Toronto that his absence caused no little comment. He is much displeased, it is said, at the slight put upon the office which he holds, and many members of the board of trade acknowledge that a mistake was made in overlooking him.

MEDALS AND SCRIP.

The North-West Assembly has again by petition drawn the attention of the Dominion Government to the injustice to the North-West Mounted Police of withholding the Medals and Scrip for service rendered during the rebellion.

The functions of a well administered Government should be the redressing of existing grievances, and by wise and impartial legislation to avoid giving rise to fresh ones.

There has never yet been a reason given, which would hold water as to why the Police were so unjustly dealt with, except evasive excuses worthy of men who would the act in such a way to "Exclude all permanent corps west of Port Arthur," knowing well that the Mounted Police were the only corps serving in the district excluded.
Could spite or jealousy be manifested in any better way than in the introduction of such exceptional legislation?

On this principle a man serving his country among savages and exiled for years from friends at home is not considered entitled to the same honor as a person comfortably putting in a soft time in civilization. The Mounted Police bore the first brunt of the fight and from the first opening of hostilities to the end in whatever situation they were placed they carried themselves nobly. For the benefit of the people who stop at home and are better hands at tinkering with words in framing legislation than in acting justly to their fellow man we may state as a piece of news that the members of the Mounted Police are Canadians. This statement of course is unnecessary to most people but it may be just as well to state it for the benefit of a few. Sooner or later justice will be done in full to the Mounted Police and it would be far better for the Government to settle the question speedily.

THE MOOSE JAW EXHIBIT.

good work for the town and district in arranging the Moose Jaw exhibit for the World's Fair has received the following letter from Mr. Angus McKay of the Experimental farm at Indian Head:

Such is Life.

'Tis in the world as in the school,
I see how fate may change and shift,
The prize be sometimes with the fool,
The race not always to the swift.
The brave may yield: the good may fall,
The great man be a vulgar clown,
The knave be lifted over all,
The kind cast pitilessly down.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

A novel scheme is being talked of in Augusta to make the State a patron of the Keeley bi-chloride of gold cure. The plan is that police and municipal judges shall be empowered after a drunkard has been sentenced a number of times to jail to send him to the Keeley institute at the expense of the state.

C. H. Mackintosh M. P., for Ottawa has decided to hand in his resignation as representative of that constituency prior to his appointment as Lieutenant-Governor of the North West Territories. Ex-Mayor Birkett, a prominent Ottawa merchant will receive the conservative nomination for the constituency made vacant by such appointment.

Waghorn's Guide for January contains a very useful map showing the new Country Court Districts, which together with the tables give the names of the officers and dates of holding Country Court throughout the Province for 1893. The new Post Offices opened are given and all changes of C.P.R. Time Card to date recorded. Full information is given re municipal districts and officials, land and registration Offices. Atlantic Steamship Sailings. Maps of the Province and City of Winnipeg also accompany the issue.

A summary of the Dominion's trade with the Motherland—according to British figures—for the eleven months of 1892 appears in the London Canadian Gazette. The exports to Canada in the eleven months of 1892 were valued at £4,552,300, compared with £4,591,837 last year, the slight decrease being chiefly due to a diminished business in iron and steel products. What is more interesting to us is the side of the account showing Great Britain's purchases from Canada, which were £10,281,686 against only £8,988,353, and increase of £1,282,343, or about $6,000,000, equal to 14.38 per cent. Some of the increases are instructive enough:

	For 11 months 1891	1892
Flour.....	$202,439	$246,739
Butter.....	174,043	238,665
Cheese.....	1,880,689	2,325,771
Wool, hewn.....	657,957	897,464
Wool, raw.....	1,826,634	2,635,651

No. 734.—A Riddle.
I sing in the woods a gentle song;
I lurk in the glens, or the brook along,
I give to the sparkling stream a hue
That artists would love to paint so true.
And in the student's den I dwell,
While our the boy I cast my spell.
The scholar loves my soberest face;
The artist paints my prettiest grace.
I'm black and white—yellow and gold—
Maybe red or green, maybe gray and old.

No. 712.—A Question of Making Change.
A man purchased groceries to the amount of 34 cents. When he came to pay for the goods he found that he had only a one dollar bill, a three cent piece, and a two cent piece. The grocer, on his side, had only a fifty cent piece and a quarter. They appealed to a bystander for change; but he, although willing to oblige them, had only two dimes, a five cent piece, a two cent piece and a one cent piece. After some perplexity, however, change was made to the satisfaction of every one concerned. What was the simplest way of accomplishing this?

No. 715.—Going to Market.
One day I went into a store
To buy some groceries,
But when I reached my home I found
The pear was half pear;
The g—r, too, was strong of gin,
And the r— was filled with ice;
The s—p contained the blood of a sire,
And the l— was in the sp—;
And was discerned in the s—;
And the c— looked queer, for per chance
The blood of a cow was spilt therein,
And the food was filled with ants;
The s— was well seasoned with sage,
And the canned s— was half tar;
And strange to say, the s— contained
The stump of a nasty cigar.
I was well worked up, and felt rather sore,
But I never again returned to that store.

Yet every one is trying still
To "put me in a hole."

No. 718.—A Drop Letter Saying.
A New Leaf for 1893.
Now is the time to turn a fine
New leaf for eighteen ninety-three,
And all our vices, great and small,
Swear off at once for good and all.
We shall not smoke—but twice a day;
The word we chew we'll throw away.
We will no whisky treat nor take—
Except in case of stomach ache.
All kinds of meanness we'll despise;
We'll let no angry passions rise.
We'll pay the cash—or go without;
We'll live at home, beyond a doubt;
We shall improve our minds and try
To free ourselves from love of pie;
We shall not talk so much to show
The small amount of sense we know,
And, we, of course, will quickly break
These resolutions That we make.

When a Fork Was Not a Fork.
Tramp—Thank you, ma'am, for giving me
the grub, but I can never eat without a fork.
Farmer's Wife—Well, amble along and you'll find a fork in the road a little further on.
